Participation in Events/Programs Sponsored by Educational Institutions Relating to Career Opportunities in Broadcasting (x)

FOX 7 participated in the Communities in Schools of Central Texas (CIS) Job Shadow Day on June 12, 2015 by hosting a group of students. Vice President, Creative Services Kathie Smith, along with Special Projects Manager Ernesto Hernandez, discussed television careers and answered questions they had prepared in advance. The students were then escorted to the studio where they were greeted by Anchor Ann Wyatt Little and were live in the studio for the last 15 minutes of the show, which included a live band performance. After the show, they learned about studio operations. Meteorologist Zack Shields demonstrated how a weather segment is put together. Afterwards, the group was treated to lunch, and each received FOX TV show merchandise based on shows they said were their favorites earlier in the day. The students were very excited to participate in this event. The Communities in Schools organization works to decrease drop-out rates of local area students. Each year, they provide students with an opportunity to experience a day in the working world. CIS Job Shadow Day allows students to expand their perspectives about prospective careers and the skills needed to pursue them, and makes school relevant.

FOX 7 hosted University of Texas Junior Stephanie Martinez-Arndt for a job shadow. Stephanie shadowed in Traffic, Sales, Programming, Promotion and Production departments for four afternoons during the month of July, 2015.

FOX 7 participated in COOL Week ("Career Opportunities On Location") by hosting two high school seniors on February 4, 2016. The experience was part of Leander ISD's College and Career Readiness program. The students observed first-hand how news is produced by shadowing employees in the newsroom and studio, attending editorial meetings and watching live newscasts. They met with Human Resources Director Lisa Cordes and Vice President, News Director Pam Vaught. They were treated to lunch, and were given an opportunity to visit with news talent, and other station employees from News and Creative Services, and learn and ask questions about careers.

5/8/15 – Sports Anchor Dennis de la Pena read to students of Austin ISD's Zavala Elementary during their Reading Rally.

10/16/15 – MMJ Bridget Spencer, Web Producer Liliana Llamas and Sports Anchor Dennis de la Pena were role models at the "Role Model Fair" at Barbara Jordan Elementary of Austin ISD.
