

Walker's Winter Outlook 2017-2018

---

1. A "wild" winter
2. Colder than the last two winters
3. More snow than the last two winters combined!
4. First measurable snow by December 15th
5. No white CHRISTMAS this year ( At least 1" snow on the ground Christmas Morning )
6. Lots of windy days
7. Extreme temperature swings ( 65 degrees at least from highest to lowest temp )
8. At least one record high temperature
9. At least one record low temperature
10. Couple of severe t-storm outbreaks this year
11. Fewer sub zero days than normal. Less than 5 sub zero days
12. Increased ice risk this winter. Couple of small events, good chance of a major ice event!
13. Heaviest snow in the first half of winter
14. Heaviest rain in the second half of winter
15. Lowest snow amount in February
16. Some cold in March
17. Some snow in March
18. Temperature will be ABOVE normal
Forecast is 31.6                      Normal is 31.1
19. Precipitation will be ABOVE normal
Forecast is 9.00"                      Normal is 8.88"
20. Snowfall will be BELOW normal
Forecast is 15.0"                      Normal is 16.5"